

TECHNICAL SUPPORT MANAGEMENT PROPOSAL

Comprehensive planned projected maintenance and reviewed technical support.

- Comprehensive technical support while developing planned maintenance system
- Initial technical assessment
- Purchase order control and troubleshooting prior to purchasing
- Planned maintenance schedules with review of effectiveness and periodic inspection
- Handling of all activities relating state of compliance and classification society requirements
- 24/7 technical assistance required to ensure functionality of vessel in operations
- 24/7 emergency response service
- Refit management and regular shipyard attendance by technical managers
- Refit administration with budget control and project reporting
- Shipyard procurement and yard selection contract negotiation

VMS also provides in-house cloud-based software solution

The logo for COM TECH, with 'COM' in red and 'TECH' in blue, both in a bold, sans-serif font.

COM
TECH

- Arranging any specialized technical advice or consultation as necessary
- Carrying out regular technical audits of vessel to monitor overall condition, report findings
- Assisting the Captain and chief engineer with spare parts procurement, and advice on vendors, contractors and shipyards
- Assisting engineers with routine shipyard day to day operation of vessel maintenance specification and troubleshooting
- Troubleshooting and advice on vessel system modifications and repairs to machinery
- Management of sub-contractors of all vessel departments
- Sourcing of supply parts and equipment
- Coordinating maintenance activities and budget

A man in a dark shirt is looking at a clipboard in an engine room. The background shows various mechanical components and pipes.

We are prepared for unexpected.